LICENCE TO PUBLISH: Explanatory Notes

The policy of XXX is to uphold the highest standards of quality, maximizing current and future access, and ensuring preservation of articles it publishes. This licence is drawn up in the spirit of co-operation.

Your article will be published electronically and will also be stored electronically on the hosting platform used by the University of Huddersfield Press.

Under the UK's Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988, the Author has the moral right to be identified as the author wherever the article is published, and to object to its derogatory treatment or distortion. XXX encourages assertion of this right, as it represents best publishing practice and is an important safeguard for all authors. If Authors use the article elsewhere after publication, the University of Huddersfield Press requests that acknowledgment is given to XXX as the original source of publication.

XXX applies the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 Unported License (CC BY) to all published articles. Under the CC BY, authors retain ownership of the copyright for their article, but authors allow anyone unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.
